

Longbow Heritage -Jim's Jungle Jaunt and Mick's 80th Birthday Party shoot.

A fantastic weekend was had by all who attended the shoot and also the party on the Saturday night. The targets were all from original drawings by Jim Edwards and although originally they were cardboard they are now backed by nice soft foam. The shoot ground is very varied from a valley lined with trees and ferns to a flat copse and a very long target in the open. The weather gods smiled and although it was very hot on Saturday, Sunday dawned cooler and more comfortable for shooting especially for those who had enjoyed the birthday celebrations the night before. The fancy dress theme was Mountain Men, Injuns and Pirates the costumes were surprising and there was a great deal of laughter around, I think the photos speak for themselves. There was live music from the Rusty Rovers which made the party go with a swing. Carol had designed and laid a challenging and tricky course which her usual band of helpers of Darren, Mick Bailey, John Thomas, Vince Clarkson and others too numerous to mention had finished by the Friday. Lorraine took on the catering challenge assisted by Hilary and Anita well done girls!! The proceeds of the homemade cakes were donated to the Air Ambulance and amounted to £104. 145 archers shot on Saturday with 156 shooting on Sunday. The Jim and Dolly memorial trophy was awarded to Lyn Dickason PV – closest score to Mick who also shoots PV. All in all it was a truly memorable weekend of archery and friendship.
